

KINGS MEADOW SCHOOL – FGB MEETINGS ATTENDANCE GRID FROM APRIL 2015

Note from the Clerk:

Giving an apology does not in itself protect a governor from disqualification for failing to attend any governing body in the relevant period. The governing body has to consent to the reasons for absence.¹ Any governor, or associate member, may be disqualified for failing to attend the governing body meetings for 6 months, without the agreement of the other governors for their absence. The 6 month period begins from the date of the first meeting which has been missed. If the governor sends apologies for absence the governors present decide whether or not to agree the apology.² Example of 6 months period: if meetings are held on 1st May and not attend on 1st September and not attended on 1st November – this covers a 6 months period – or if the school does not have a September meeting and the person did not attend on 1st May or 1st November this also constitutes 6 months.³
